

please do not change Indiana law regarding the no-call list. It can be quite threatening at times to be contacted by strangers in my home. It usually occurs right after I walk in the door to greet my family, or later on, while I'm enjoying my dinner or watching tv. It has been wonderful not to have so many call each evening.